

AMHERST PELHAM

Regional School Districts

AMHERST, MASSACHUSETTS

Superintendent of Schools

Situated in the historic, picturesque and culturally rich home of Amherst College, the University of Massachusetts and Hampshire College, the Amherst-Pelham Regional School District educates a diverse and high-achieving population of approximately 3,500 students.

The superintendency in Amherst presents an exciting opportunity to engage a dedicated staff of professionals in leading a high-performing district. The Amherst Regional School District is also a founding member of the Minority Student Achievement Network, an organization of twenty-three multi-racial, primarily suburban districts that are committed to challenging and supporting all students.

Ideally, the successful candidate will have proven experience in diverse communities, a commitment to high academic achievement for every student, and the skills and desire to lead in an engaged and academic community.

Prospective candidates may review district information at www.arps.org and request application materials from the consultant. Compensation will be competitive. The application deadline is December 15, 2008.
